

LETTERS FROM TWO STATES

New London County

UNCAVILLE

Vacation in Town Schools—Thursday Afternoon Club Officers—Cemetery Association Organized 60 Years.

Fred Bergman, who has been spending two weeks with friends in New York, has returned home.

The public school term closed Friday, April 14, for the Easter vacation and will open again April 24th. During March there were sixty-one pupils perfect in attendance at the Palmer Memorial school.

Home From Hospital.

Norman C. Lathrop, who has been under treatment at a hospital in Willimantic, has returned to his home, much improved.

Mrs. Frank E. Wilson of this village accompanied by Mrs. Frank Mousley of Waterford, has been spending several days with her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hartford.

Mrs. Charles T. Beebe is entertaining her mother, Mrs. Samuel Hanney, of Hartford.

Elections Officers.

The Thursday afternoon club held its regular meeting with an attendance of twenty-two. The meeting was conducted by the Ladies' Aid society. The yearly election of officers took place with the following results: President, Mrs. John Botham; first vice president, Mrs. Jeremiah Phillips; second vice president, Mrs. Mary Chapman; secretary, Mrs. Charles Hope; treasurer, Mrs. Richard W. Johnson; Oscar E. Church, Jr., Mrs. J. B. Botham, Mrs. Hubert G. Darr; chaplain, Mrs. Charles C. Tibbitts; clerk, Mrs. Charles E. Ramage; Mrs. Richard W. Johnson and Mrs. Charles Watson; club secretary, Mrs. Jennie A. Phillips. A social hour was enjoyed after the business was over. Mrs. Tibbitts and Mrs. Long serving refreshments.

Societies Receive Communion.

Sunday morning twenty members of Pequot council Knights of Columbus, met in a body and with the Holy Name society received communion at St. John's Roman Catholic church.

Charles Ramage has sold his house and land to Max Frieburg, of Palmerstown, and will move to Mrs. Louise Gallop's house, in Pequot.

Joseph Ladika, while employed putting on a belt on the carding machines in the Palmer Bros. Co.'s mill, was caught in the shafting, bruising and cutting him badly.

James Hendon is working in Pequot and will move his household goods and family to that place.

Organized Sixty Year Ago.

The Comstock cemetery association was organized sixty years ago Monday, April 10th, with Robert Comstock as president and the following board of directors: Joseph Comstock, W. C. Turner, W. R. Wood, J. C. Bolles, and R. L. Havens. Other presidents since its organization are: William R. Wood, Daniel L. Browning, John L. Comstock, Elisha H. Palmer, Alfred Hurlbut and George O. Cole, the present incumbent. The present board of directors are: George O. Allen, George N. Wood, Charles Ramage, Robert G. Darr, Dan J. Harlow, Frank H. Rogers and Frederick R. Perkins. The cemetery is located on the knoll just above the town of Pequot, and commands a beautiful view up and down the Thames river.

Back to the Farm.

Joseph Church has sold his farm to Joseph A. Richards, of New York. Mr. Richards is a grandson of Mrs. Charlotte Baker, the owner previous to Mr. Church. He is returning to the farm to do which will restore the house to its old style structure, and will occupy it with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Church will be retained as caretakers.

Mrs. Annie Hooper, who has been spending the past few months as guest of her sister, Mrs. Henry Dart, has returned to Arlington, Mass.

Arthur Bouchard, who has been under treatment in the hospital, is so much improved, he expects to return to his home in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. William McMahon, accompanied by Miss Annie Kilroy, of Norwich, with Misses Jane and Vera Walsh, of New London, were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew J. Walsh, Sunday.

Miss Winnie Bartlett, at school student, of Providence, is spending the Easter vacation with her parents.

The baseball season opened Sunday afternoon with a game between the Pequot Juniors and the Uncasville Juniors. The Pequot team won by a score of 8 to 5. Topsy and Pacheco were the battery for Pequot Juniors, Richards and McDermott for the Uncasville team.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jeffers have been entertaining Miss Jennie Gallop, who has returned to her home in Hanover, after a few days' visit.

John Vallet has let the contract for ligging the cellar to the house he is to have built to Burke Hewes.

Pleasing Entertainment.

Friday evening the Ladies' Aid society gave an entertainment in the Baptist church. The program consisted of several selections, vocal, instrumental and musical. After the entertainment, cake and home-made candy were on sale.

Harold Rosecomb is employed at New Haven, was a week-end guest at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rosecomb, in Pequot.

The Lenten devotions are held in St. John's church on Tuesday and Friday evenings.

Met at Parsonage.

The Ladies' Aid society met with Mrs. Edwin Genyon, Wednesday afternoon. Thursday afternoon the missionary society will be entertained by Mrs. William M. Lakin at the parsonage.

Arthur Matthews formerly in the employ of the C. M. Robertson Co., now in Stonington, was a week-end guest of friends in town.

Failed to Pay Tax.

Harris Freiburg, William Hartman and I. R. Schwell, were brought before Justice of Peace, William Smiddy, on Friday, for non-payment of personal taxes for 1915. Their cases were continued for one week to give them time to find the receipts, if they have them, has been the case in several other similar prosecutions.

MONTVILLE

Mrs. Alice P. Mitchell Home from Florida—Plainfield Church Gives Entertainment at Baptist Church.

Mrs. A. P. Mitchell, who has been spending the winter in Florida has returned.

Frank Everett of New Haven spent the week-end at the home of his son, James Everett.

Mrs. James Armstrong of New Haven was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Chapel of Palmerstown.

The Ladies' Aid society was entertained at the home of Mrs. Edwin Henry in Palmerstown, Wednesday.

Special Meetings.

Rev. William Lakin of the Union Baptist church has been holding

OLD MYSTIC

Suprise Party Given Miss Emily C. Babcock—Burial of A. Wright—New Residence for Sidney Siswick.

Miss Emily C. Babcock was given a surprise party by her friends on Thursday evening at the home of her aunt, Miss Susan H. Babcock, by the following young friends: Miss Mary Walbridge, Ruth Burrows, Fanny Marchand, Hazel Davis, Dorothy Harris, Hester Burdick, Eleanor Burrows, Bernice Burdick and Messrs. Elisha N. Davis, Will Marchand, James Whiting, Howard Clyde, Theodore Perry, Horace S. Williams, Clifford Denley. The evening was given to vocal and instrumental music and games. Refreshments were served.

The United Workers of the Methodist Episcopal church met Wednesday afternoon at the parish house.

Mrs. Frank E. Williams entertained the Baptist Ladies' Aid society Wednesday afternoon.

Burial at Hope Valley.

Theodore Bachelier is expected to preach here tomorrow (Sunday). Mr. Bachelier will be graduated from the Theological seminary in June. His father, Rev. F. J. Bachelier, now of Calcutta, was pastor here for a number of years about 25 years ago.

Gives $10 for Armenian Relief.

The Sunday school recently contributed $10 to be sent to the institute in Armenia.

LEBANON

Black Snakes Killed—Mrs. L. P. Smith, Local D. A. R. Member, Sells Belgian Relief Flags—Social Affairs—Accident.

A number from this place attended the dance in Fire Engine hall, South Windham, last Friday evening.

Mrs. Henry Hewitt has returned after visiting friends in Boston and at New London.

Robert Little and Will Sweet were in Norwich Monday.

L. P. Smith spent a few days in Hartford this week.

Snakes Killed.

Clark Standish and Robert Little recently killed two black snakes, one measuring 5 feet and the other 5 1-2 feet long.

D. A. R. Member Active.

Mrs. L. P. Smith was distributing flags for the Belgium relief fund this week. Mrs. Smith is the only D. A. R. member in Lebanon and is a member of Faith Trumbull chapter of Norwich.

March Mortality.

The state board of health reported four deaths from March in Lebanon during March, the average age being 88 years. Following are the names and ages: James M. Potter, 87 years; Mrs. Aurelia M. Randall, 87 years; Mrs. Clara E. Caples, 90 years, and Mrs. Lucy Ann Foote, 93 years.

Some from this place attended the Social Corner gathering in Willimantic Wednesday.

Peep frogs were heard last week.

The body of James F. Mason, which was placed in Undertaker C. A. Gager's vault last month, was brought to Lebanon Tuesday afternoon and buried in the New cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Manning were in Norwich Monday and also called on Mrs. Lucy Manning at Yantic.

Attended Dance.

A few from this place attended the dance at the home of Frank Way in Franklin last Friday evening.

Mrs. Joseph Abbot and Mrs. Benjamin Peckham returned Thursday after spending some time in Boston.

Given a Party.

Mrs. William Blanchard was given a party Tuesday evening at her place.

Miss Edna Burgess, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Goodwin and Mr. and Mrs. George Lyman, of New London, were in Lebanon Tuesday.

Miss Edna Burgess and Miss Gladys Peckham waited on the table, at which a dainty luncheon was served.

Trains Emma Troilard of New London has been visiting her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Troilard.

Birthday Celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. John Goodwin entertained Thursday at a birthday party for Mrs. Goodwin's father, J. Henry King, of Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. William Blanchard, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Boothby, Mr. and Mrs. George Lyman, Mrs. Lillian Hahn and Mrs. J. Henry King attended.

A Bad Accident.

Last Saturday Elmer Geer met with a serious accident. While splitting wood the axe slipped, cutting his wrist in such a way that a severe operation was necessary.

Mr. Geer was taken to St. Joseph's hospital at Willimantic, where he will remain for a few days. It will be several weeks before he can get home.

Mrs. H. M. Peck spent Thursday with her husband, Mrs. E. A. Hoxie, Nelson W. Whelan and Mrs. Coughlin place, sold out at auction on Thursday. Frank K. Noyes was auctioneer. There was a fair attendance and things sold well.

Cottage Burned.

Teddy Bear cottage on land belonging to Charles H. Brown of Norwich, was destroyed by fire between 11 and 12 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Opens Conference Year.

Rev. James M. Potter opened the new conference year in the M. E. church last Sunday morning, with this text, Rev. James M. Potter, the Old Paths, the Backward and Forward Looks. He congratulated the church on its growth and the success of its harmony. D. C. Perkins, assistant superintendent presided at the Sunday school session.

Mrs. Harmon L. Perkins led the Epworth League service with the topic in the evening, Following the Peace Prince. There was special music and a good attendance.

Attended Boston Convention.

Courland E. Colver of the Navy Yard, superintendent W. R. Perry Ice Co., New London, attended the Massachusetts Ice Dealers' Association convention at the American House, Boston, last Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Brevities.

Mrs. Walter Beckwith and daughter, Miss Gladys, were guests at the home of Noyes B. Allyn, Saturday.

Mrs. Walter Burthout of New London was a recent visitor in the place.

Mrs. Elmer Keene and daughter, of Kingsley, who have been guests at the home of Mrs. Alice D. Abbot, returned home Saturday.

Miss Lillian Chapman of Groton was a visitor at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Charles H. Comstock, Monday.

Mrs. George Corney and Charles H. Hilton, of Norwich, were recent callers at their cottages on the bluff.

Herbert H. Corey of Norwich was a guest at the home of Mrs. Mary and Gertrude Allen of the New London road, Saturday.

Miss G. E. Colver of the Navy Yard spent Sunday with relatives in Middletown.

Mrs. Edwin Keeney of New London was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Latimer in the village, Monday.

Mrs. Alice Satterlee returned Friday from several days' visit with her brother Elmer Satterlee and family of North Haven.

Leaves Saturday Cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Fay have taken the Darr cottage in the village for the entire season. Mr. Fay is connected with the submarine base, the Yard, and Mrs. Fay will move from Boston to spend the summer near the base.

The family of J. De Ruyter, also connected with the submarine base, Mr. and Mrs. Ruyter, moved to the town of Canterbury, where he had gone with a heavy team belonging to the firm of Sajo & Fayette, for a load of wood. The time of the accident, or how it occurred, Mr. Payette has not been able to determine. It was found unconscious lying in a pool of blood by the roadside, doubtless the result of being kicked or stepped upon by the horses. Among his numerous cuts and bruises was a deep gash over one eye, his lip was cut and his head was bruised. He was rushed to a knooked out, where his injuries were attended. Mr. Payette is resting quietly and it is hoped no complications will result from the accident.

Shoe Leather Found Wanting.

London, April 14. — British shoe leather has this year been found wanting in its traditional good quality. Dealers declare the reason for this is that owing to the war the supply of chestnut extract from France and Valonia acorn cus from Turkey has been cut off and tanners have been compelled to use inferior tanning materials.

Germany is experimenting with electric machinery for gathering peat.

Saturday Money Savers

Courtesy, Correct Weight and Satisfaction

HEAVY Rib Roast, lb. 20c-22c
Shoulder Roast, lb. 14c-16c
Potting Pieces, lb. 12 1/2c

Full Round STEAK 18c
Fresh PORK CHOPS 15c
HAMBURG STEAK 25c
2 lbs.

LARGE BROWN EGGS
Whole Milk CHEESE 20c
lb.

Mohican PORK AND BEANS
can 9c 3 cans 25c

Mohican Catsup, pint bottle. 18c
Horseradish, large bottle. 9c
Mohican Special Coffee, 1 lb. can. 35c
Columbia River Steak Salmon, can 28c
Gorton's Codfish Cakes, each. 17c
Fancy Tag Bloaters, 2 for. 5c
Mohican Pure Jelly, 2 jars. 25c
Shredded Coconut, lb. 18c
Pekin Toilet Paper, large roll. 3c
Potato Chips, package. 12c
Booth's Catsup, 3 bottles. 25c
Large Pail Jelly, each. 23c

OUR BEST CREAMERY BUTTER 37c
FRESH GREEN SPINACH 15c

Red Ripe STRAWBERRIES, box 35c
Heavy, Solid GRAPE FRUIT, 5 for 25c
FANCY ASPARAGUS, lb. 20c
NEW CABBAGE, lb. 5c
FANCY CUCUMBERS, 2 for. 25c
SUNKIST ORANGES, dozen. 25c
FANCY EGG PLANT, each. 17c
NEW ONIONS, quart. 10c

5 pound SUGAR 50c
1 package TEA 50c

Cal's Ferry
April Meeting of Auxiliary-Villagers Liberal for Belgian Relief — Men from Submarine Base Leave Cottages.

The April meeting of the auxiliary of the Woman's Home Missionary society was held at the parsonage from 2 to 5 o'clock, Tuesday afternoon, with Mrs. James M. Potter as hostess. The topic was Home Missions a Healing Force. Miss Sarah T. Latimer, the president, presided. The meeting opened with singing, A Song of Praise. Mrs. Harmon L. Perkins led the devotionals. A paper on the subject of Home Missions in Action, was read by Mrs. Fanny A. Moltrop. Miss Laura A. Perkins conducted a review of the year's work.

Miss Alice Satterlee read a selection from "Master's Touch," by Bishop Quayle. Another article by the same author, The World's Need, was read by Mrs. Rufus W. Hubbard. Roll call preceded the reports of the secretary and treasurer. Mrs. Harmon L. Perkins, treasurer of the mite boxes, reported a total of $1.50. Others announced the largest offering over any previous year. A social hour followed with refreshments.

Liberal to Belgian Relief.

Tag day was duly observed in the village last Saturday and Sunday, in support of the Belgian Flag Day. Saturday was devoted to the sale of Blue Birds, canvassed the village, selling the little flags with good results. The proceeds were for the benefit of the Belgian people.

Mrs. H. M. Peck spent Thursday with her husband, Mrs. E. A. Hoxie, Nelson W. Whelan and Mrs. Coughlin place, sold out at auction on Thursday. Frank K. Noyes was auctioneer. There was a fair attendance and things sold well.

Cottage Burned.

Teddy Bear cottage on land belonging to Charles H. Brown of Norwich, was destroyed by fire between 11 and 12 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Opens Conference Year.

Rev. James M. Potter opened the new conference year in the M. E. church last Sunday morning, with this text, Rev. James M. Potter, the Old Paths, the Backward and Forward Looks. He congratulated the church on its growth and the success of its harmony. D. C. Perkins, assistant superintendent presided at the Sunday school session.

Mrs. Harmon L. Perkins led the Epworth League service with the topic in the evening, Following the Peace Prince. There was special music and a good attendance.

Attended Boston Convention.

Courland E. Colver of the Navy Yard, superintendent W. R. Perry Ice Co., New London, attended the Massachusetts Ice Dealers' Association convention at the American House, Boston, last Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Brevities.

Mrs. Walter Beckwith and daughter, Miss Gladys, were guests at the home of Noyes B. Allyn, Saturday.

Mrs. Walter Burthout of New London was a recent visitor in the place.

Mrs. Elmer Keene and daughter, of Kingsley, who have been guests at the home of Mrs. Alice D. Abbot, returned home Saturday.

Miss Lillian Chapman of Groton was a visitor at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Charles H. Comstock, Monday.

Mrs. George Corney and Charles H. Hilton, of Norwich, were recent callers at their cottages on the bluff.

Herbert H. Corey of Norwich was a guest at the home of Mrs. Mary and Gertrude Allen of the New London road, Saturday.

Miss G. E. Colver of the Navy Yard spent Sunday with relatives in Middletown.

Mrs. Edwin Keeney of New London was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Latimer in the village, Monday.

Mrs. Alice Satterlee returned Friday from several days' visit with her brother Elmer Satterlee and family of North Haven.

Leaves Saturday Cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Fay have taken the Darr cottage in the village for the entire season. Mr. Fay is connected with the submarine base, the Yard, and Mrs. Fay will move from Boston to spend the summer near the base.

The family of J. De Ruyter, also connected with the submarine base, Mr. and Mrs. Ruyter, moved to the town of Canterbury, where he had gone with a heavy team belonging to the firm of Sajo & Fayette, for a load of wood. The time of the accident, or how it occurred, Mr. Payette has not been able to determine. It was found unconscious lying in a pool of blood by the roadside, doubtless the result of being kicked or stepped upon by the horses. Among his numerous cuts and bruises was a deep gash over one eye, his lip was cut and his head was bruised. He was rushed to a knooked out, where his injuries were attended. Mr. Payette is resting quietly and it is hoped no complications will result from the accident.

Shoe Leather Found Wanting.

London, April 14. — British shoe leather has this year been found wanting in its traditional good quality. Dealers declare the reason for this is that owing to the war the supply of chestnut extract from France and Valonia acorn cus from Turkey has been cut off and tanners have been compelled to use inferior tanning materials.

Germany is experimenting with electric machinery for gathering peat.

Clark's Falls

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson D. Maine of Westbury were guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard D. Maine, over Sunday.

Mrs. S. Frank Palmer was in Westbury Thursday.

George W. Burdick of Chase Hill, Ashaway, was a caller in Clark's Falls Monday morning.

Shoe Leather Found Wanting.

London, April 14. — British shoe leather has this year been found wanting in its traditional good quality. Dealers declare the reason for this is that owing to the war the supply of chestnut extract from France and Valonia acorn cus from Turkey has been cut off and tanners have been compelled to use inferior tanning materials.

Germany is experimenting with electric machinery for gathering peat.

THE MOHICAN COMPANY

Saturday Money Savers

FRESH Little Pig Pork Loins lb. 17c
Native Fresh Hams, lb. 17c
Fresh Eastern Loins, lb. 18c

Native CHICKENS 30c
lb.
SMOKED SHOULDERS, lb. 12 1/2c
Fresh Sliced LIVER 13c
3 lbs.

Large Dill PICKLES 5c
2 for.

2 lbs. CARROTS 10c
2 lbs. PARSNIPS All for.

Red Ripe STRAWBERRIES, box 35c
Heavy, Solid GRAPE FRUIT, 5 for 25c
FANCY ASPARAGUS, lb. 20c
NEW CABBAGE, lb. 5c
FANCY CUCUMBERS, 2 for. 25c
SUNKIST ORANGES, dozen. 25c
FANCY EGG PLANT, each. 17c
NEW ONIONS, quart. 10c

5 pound SUGAR 50c
1 package TEA 50c

Cal's Ferry
April Meeting of Auxiliary-Villagers Liberal for Belgian Relief — Men from Submarine Base Leave Cottages.

The April meeting of the auxiliary of the Woman's Home Missionary society was held at the parsonage from 2 to 5 o'clock, Tuesday afternoon, with Mrs. James M. Potter as hostess. The topic was Home Missions a Healing Force. Miss Sarah T. Latimer, the president, presided. The meeting opened with singing, A Song of Praise. Mrs. Harmon L. Perkins led the devotionals. A paper on the subject of Home Missions in Action, was read by Mrs. Fanny A. Moltrop. Miss Laura A. Perkins conducted a review of the year's work.

Miss Alice Satterlee read a selection from "Master's Touch," by Bishop Quayle. Another article by the same author, The World's Need, was read by Mrs. Rufus W. Hubbard. Roll call preceded the reports of the secretary and treasurer. Mrs. Harmon L. Perkins, treasurer of the mite boxes, reported a total of $1.50. Others announced the largest offering over any previous year. A social hour followed with refreshments.

Liberal to Belgian Relief.

Tag day was duly observed in the village last Saturday and Sunday, in support of the Belgian Flag Day. Saturday was devoted to the sale of Blue Birds, canvassed the village, selling the little flags with good results. The proceeds were for the benefit of the Belgian people.

Mrs. H. M. Peck spent Thursday with her husband, Mrs. E. A. Hoxie, Nelson W. Whelan and Mrs. Coughlin place, sold out at auction on Thursday. Frank K. Noyes was auctioneer. There was a fair attendance and things sold well.

Cottage Burned.

Teddy Bear cottage on land belonging to Charles H. Brown of Norwich, was destroyed by fire between 11 and 12 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Opens Conference Year.

Rev. James M. Potter opened the new conference year in the M. E. church last Sunday morning, with this text, Rev. James M. Potter, the Old Paths, the Backward and Forward Looks. He congratulated the church on its growth and the success of its harmony. D. C. Perkins, assistant superintendent presided at the Sunday school session.

Mrs. Harmon L. Perkins led the Epworth League service with the topic in the evening, Following the Peace Prince. There was special music and a good attendance.

Attended Boston Convention.

Courland E. Colver of the Navy Yard, superintendent W. R. Perry Ice Co., New London, attended the Massachusetts Ice Dealers' Association convention at the American House, Boston, last Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Brevities.

Mrs. Walter Beckwith and daughter, Miss Gladys, were guests at the home of Noyes B. Allyn, Saturday.

Mrs. Walter Burthout of New London was a recent visitor in the place.

Mrs. Elmer Keene and daughter, of Kingsley, who have been guests at the home of Mrs. Alice D. Abbot, returned home Saturday.

Miss Lillian Chapman of Groton was a visitor at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Charles H. Comstock, Monday.